

THE 10 BEST BOWLERS IN THE NATION'S CAPITAL AREA

Jim Robinette of North Springfield again led the area bowlers in high average this past year. Robinette was ranked number one by the association ranking committee for a 1969-1970 season average of 201.938.

Mike Hahn was second, again, with 199.729; and Larry O'Neil was third with 195.328.

The top ten bowlers were presented with plaques for their efforts.

Robinette is also the number one ranked bowler in the State of Virginia.

Following are the top rankers and their composite averages:

4. Don Caniglia 194.821
5. Malton Evans 194.160
6. Hank Aragaki 192.754
7. Wallace Fry 192.632
8. Vincent Laroque 192.514
9. Earl Engleman 191.681
10. Reuben Scheidt 191.623
11. Kermit Harnes 190.289
12. George Betts 190.038
13. Jesse Burch 189.984
14. Joel Pear 189.974
15. Phil McKean 189.585
16. Rick McCarraher .. 189.438
17. Robert Rothgeb 189.292
18. Ervin Raines 189.059
19. Earl Hickerson 189.029
20. Jack Lutz 189.004

THE TOP TEN: Hank Aragaki, Mal Evans, Reuben Scheidt, Don Caniglia, Mike Hahn, Jim Robinette, Larry O'Neil, Wally Fry, Earl Engleman, and Vince Laroque.

PHIL RYAN'S

PRO SHOP

HYATTSVILLE, MD.
864-6500

Could You Bowl Better With A Properly Fitted Ball?