

TENNA BOONE WINS VBQ TOURNEY

Following is information on the recent Virginia Bowling Queens Tournament at Village Lanes in Leesburg, Virginia over the week-end of March 21-22, 1981.

1. Tenna Boone, Washington, D.C.	3090	$300.00 & Plaque
2. Karen Falk, Leesburg, Va.	3032	200.00
3. Ellen Carey, Waynesboro, Va.	3013	150.00
4. Reedy Grey, Leesburg, Va.	2995	100.00
5. Ann Scoles, Hyattsville, Md.	2993	85.00
6. Sheila McCauley, Falls Church, Va.	2984	80.00
7. Diane Dixon, Falls Church, Va.	2974	75.00
8. Gracie Freeman, Alexandria, Va.	2968	70.00
9. Pat Kent, Leesburg, Va.	2963	65.00
10. Laura Clark, Newport News, Va.	2952	50.00
11. Jody Feinman, Silver Spring, Md.	2950	50.00
12. Leola Floyd, Alexandria, Va.	2943	40.00
13. Mary Moore, Gladstone, Va.	2936	35.00
14. Carolyn Cotterell, Norfolk, Va.	2931	28.80
15. Jean Lang, Front Royal, Va.	2927	25.00
16. Barbara Sowa, Virginia Beach, Va.	2922	25.00
17. Rose Hill, Suitland, Md.	2920	25.00
18. Sandra Thomas, Hyattsville, Md.	2916	25.00

Out-of-the-money awards were won by Hazel Sautters—$15.00, Falls Church, for high 4 games of 814; Oneda Moore—$20.00, Newport News, for high 8 games of 1576; Decarol Pyles—$10.00, Capital Heights, Md. for high games on Sat. of 253 and Bobbie Buck—$10.00, of Chantilly for high games on Sunday of 236.

Tournament highest series was 830 by Gracie Freeman (4 game block) and the highest game was 269 by Tenna Boone. Gracie shot a 266 game on Sunday.

The next VBQ tournament will be at Thunderbird Lanes in Virginia Beach over the week-end of June 27-28 with the October event to be in Richmond at Major League Lanes on October 24-25.

Tournaments are scratch competition, 16 games over Saturday and Sunday in 4 game blocks. Membership is required at a cost of $10,000 and is open to women with a 165 or over average for 36 or more games. Three tournaments per season are available with an entry fee of $25.00.