
Martin, Bush win top scholarships in Youth Scratch Shoot-Out

Christine Martin of Huntingtown, Md., and Brandon Bush of Ellicott City, Md., won the top scholarship prizes in the Youth Scratch Shoot-Out held Feb. 7 at Bowl America Falls Church.

Top seed Martin defeated Laurel's Latisse Parker, 226-185, to capture the $65 top scholarship prize in the Girls Division. Parker, who took home a $35 scholarship, reached the championship match by edging Erin Gore of Woodbridge, 204-202, after Gore toppled Colleen Anderson of Annapolis, 210-197.

Meanwhile, Bush emerged the $270 scholarship champion in the Boys Division with his 213-182 conquest of Ryan Anderson of Glen Burnie, Md. Anderson, who collected a $130 scholarship, earlier defeated Forest Thomas ($45 scholarship) of Fairfax Station, 215-191, and Bowie's Michael Gregory ($60 scholarship), 232-159.

Other male finalists included Frederick Peterbark of Springfield and Jason Brown of Germantown, who each earned a $35 scholarship.
