FINAL - February 13, 2005

Harrington Wins $30,000 Super Mini Eliminator Crown

Brunswick's Ron Bragg presents the check and trophy to Craig Harrington

Perseverance pays off. Craig Harrington, Herriman, Utah is the 205 Super Bowl Mini Eliminator Champion. Harrington, a regular Mini Eliminator bowler for many years, tied senior Ken Racette, San Diego, California in the title game with a 203, then won the sudden death ninth and tenth frame rolloff 30-28 for the $30,000 top prize. Harrington bowled the event in the 40-49 division. Racette earned $15,000 for his great performance. It was the first tie for the championship in Mini Eliminator history.

"I was down a lot for the week, and this was my last shot. I can't believe it," said an emotional Harrington after the match. He plans to split the prize with his brother, who has sponsored him for many years.

Finishing third for $10,000 with a 200 game, was Ben Gruisinga from Assen, Holland. He was part of a large group of players from Europe and Asia in this international event. 4th place went to Jay Ashbaugh, Pflugerville, Texas, and 5th was Jeff Ussery, Lawrence, Kansas. Ashbaugh won $7,500 and Ussery took home $5000. They rolled games of 179 and 169 in the championship match.

The 205 Super Bowl Mini Eliminator drew 967 bowlers and 2487 entries in its eight day run at the Orleans in Las Vegas. The next Mini Eliminator will be in July at the Orleans Bowling Center.
