SECRETARIES MUST "DOUBLE-CHECK" FILLABLE FORMS

Secretaries completing the NCAUSBCA online fillable awards form while using browsers such as Google Chrome or Opera will submit an empty form to the association office if they simply "save" the file upon completion and attach the file in an eMail. With these and possibly other browsers, they must instead select "print" -- not "save" -- and choose "Adobe PDF" as the printer. Secretaries are encouraged to open all completed fillable forms before sending to ensure the data entered is present on the form.

BRIEFLY....

BOWL Magazine is published six times each season. All issues since September 2010 are available online for viewing/download at www.ncausbca.org/bowlmag/bm_issues.htm.

The 1,242 game and 3,584 series recorded March 5, 2016 at AMF Waldorf by the five-player youth (17-20 years) team of Corey O'Neill (235/693), Dikki Hipps (214/661), Devin Waller (215/659), Xavier Woods (278/794), and Gene Blair (300/777) qualified for USBC National Team Score recognition for the 2015-2016 season. USBC will present game and series awards to each team member. ... December 1 is the filing deadline for six scholarships -- USBC Alberta E. Crowe Star Of Tomorrow, USBC Chuck Hall Star Of Tomorrow, USBC Earl Anthony Memorial Scholarship, USBC Annual Zeb Scholarship, USBC Youth Ambassador of the Year, and USBC Gift for Life Scholarships. In addition, March 24 is the deadline for the Dexter All-American Team grants. Details on all of these scholarships are available here. ... Former area bowler Natasha Coleman-Ball recently won the National American Miss Maryland Pageant and desires to "make a difference in my community."

FOR THE RECORD

Donald B. Smith Jr. of Waldorf, Md., recently was indefinitely suspended from membership in USBC and must not bowl in any USBC leagues or tournaments or hold office. ... Damon B. Miller of Oxon Hill, Md., remains suspended from USBC. ... Correct 2015-2016 league averages: (1) Glenard Hodges, 213 for 81 games in the Tuesday AM Mixed at Parkland; (2) Anthony K. Winston Jr., 223 for 51 games in the Saturday Night Foursome at Crofton; (3) Diann Dargush 133 for 96 games in the ISBM league at Bowl America Burke. ... Meanwhile, the correct averages for Michael J. Filipowicz (197 for 95 games last season and 200/72 in 2014-2015) and Michael T. Filipowicz (128/74 and 118/69) in the AMC Mixed league at Bowl America Shirley appear under each other's name in the respective NCAUSBCA Annual Averages books. ... There should be two "James T. Jones" listed in the current book, where four averages appear under one name. The 173 average for 99 games in the 2015-2016 Pinbusters Mixed league at Parkland, should appear as a separate listing.

Many ways for bowlers to support our veterans

During the month of November, many organizations throughout the U.S. will share stories and show their appreciation and support for those proud men and women who have served and are serving our country in the armed services—our veterans.

NCAUSBCA is a very proud sponsor of providing funds to veterans who have given so much for our country. Each year, your association sponsors a Mixed Tournament in Support of BVL—the Bowlers to Veterans Link. This tournament provides funds to programs for our members by now. If this has not taken place, I would strongly suggest that prize lists be offered to the bowling league members and voted on as soon as possible. Your league president also is responsible for forming an audit committee to review the league's financial records. At least three audits should be completed prior to the end of bowling season.

As a special note, I would like to remind our members that the association's Annual Membership Meeting will be held on Sunday, February 26, 2017 at a site to be wounded and disabled veterans but also allows you, the bowler, to win prize money. The funds from the BVL Tournament also are used to provide recreational equipment and arts and crafts materials for those who have served and fought for those freedoms that we have come to enjoy on a daily basis.

This year's tournament will be held at Bowl America Shirley in Alexandria, Va., on December 10 and 11. We ask all of our members to come out and support this special and worthwhile event. If you are unable to participate, your individual and/or group donations are always appreciated and welcomed. Donations may be given to your lane representatives or taken directly to the association office.

As a reminder, your league president should have arranged for proposed prize list(s) to be reviewed and on voted on by league members. This event is an opportunity for members to elect individuals to the association's board of directors and also for delegates to both the state meeting and USBC Convention. Members also can vote on proposed USBC rule changes and any policy changes being recommended by your association as well as ask questions of the NCAUSBCA board. Please place this important date on your calendar.

As always, feel free to contact me with any questions or comments you may have at president@ncausbca.org or you may call the office at 301/499-1693.

On behalf of the board of directors and the association staff, I would like to wish everyone a blessed Thanksgiving and a happy and joyful Christmas and New Year season. I also certainly hope you keep striking.

MANAGER'S MEMO • RONALD MCGREGOR

Secretaries must submit a card for each league member

Each bowler should remember to fill out and submit to the league secretary a sanction application card for every league you join. Meanwhile, the secretary must remember to submit a card (and dues where appropriate) to the association office for every individual who participates in the league.

The NCAUSBCA board recently approved an enhanced youth awards program that will include items such as watches and plaques. The adult program has a few added awards, including the year-end league champion offering.

* * * * *

For a member's name to appear on the ballot at this season's Annual Membership Meeting on February 26, a completed candidate application is due at the NCAUSBCA office no later than December 31, 2016. A candidate form can be found on our site, so if you want to make a difference, please fill one out.

We can't be sure if this winter is going to be as nice as last winter, so be sure your league has postponement/makeup procedures in place. It's not worth risking your health if travel is going to be dicey due to wet, icy roads.

Cold weather calls for special bowling ball care

Q. I store some of my bowling balls in my garage. Lately, I went to get one, and it has a crack all the way around the ball. What do you think is going on?

A. This is my annual question—every year at this time this comes up. Bowling balls do not like big changes in temperature, and this time of the year, we see pretty big temperature changes all over the country. We are going into winter, and cold weather is no better for our equipment than too much heat.

Best thing to do now is keep them indoors in a more controlled heat environment. I know it's a pain, but if you would not like to be stuck outside in the weather, neither does your bowling equipment. And just think how much happier you will be when you put on your bowling shoes next outing—your feet won't be frostbitten.

I know it's a pain, but if you would not like to be stuck outside in the weather, neither does your bowling equipment.

Q. I have been seeing a change in our great game that bothers me: I bowl with three others in a four-man league. I have been bowling for many years. This is a decent scratch league, and my teammates are driving me crazy. They are always on their phone on the internet. Sometimes I have to go run them down to take their turn. This is a new distraction that is unprecedented as far as I can remember. Is there a way that you might know of to get these young 'uns to be more focused?

A. This is a new problem created by the technology of our times. I have run into the same problem at times.

I just mention to them that there are others in our league that are here to bowl and not play on the net. Let them know they are causing slow play by not being ready when it is their turn. Also point out how much better their own game might become if they concentrated on their game instead of the worldwide net. Remind them the net will still be there after our 2½ hours of bowling, and they can catch up then. This has become a bigger problem over the past three or four years with the wide use of social media.

Many people I bowl with have expressed versions of your question to me, but I have not seen anything written about it. So thank you for your question. This needs to be brought up more in league meetings to keep it from becoming a bigger problem.

BVL joins in National Veterans Day activities

Representatives from the Bowlers to Veterans Link fanned out across the Washington, D.C. area this Veterans Day to participate in a variety of events to celebrate and honor our nation's military veterans—from a breakfast at the White House, to a wreath laying at the Tomb of the Unknowns, to a meeting with Veterans Administration Secretary Robert McDonald—the day was filled with programs and activities designed to raise the public consciousness of the service and sacrifice of America's veterans.

November 11 began early for United States Bowling Congress Executive Director Chad Murphy and Chairman of the Board of QuibicaAMF Pat Ciniello. "We were proud to represent BVL and our great sport as guests at the White House breakfast honoring our nation's veterans," noted Ciniello.

Lisa Ciniello and Anita LaSpina represented BVL as part of the Presidential Color Guard, comprised of members of the nation's Veterans Service Organizations, at Arlington National Cemetery.

BVL Board President John LaSpina remarked, "Although every day is Veterans Day for us at BVL, this was a wonderful occasion to join together collectively as a nation to reflect and remember what our veterans have done for us. President Obama's remarks resonated with our BVL group when he stated in his speech, 'We can acknowledge that we can never truly repay our veterans for what they have done for us, but we can try... We must honor their good work with our own.'"

BVL is a member of the National Veterans Day Organizing Committee and, as such, earns the privilege and the opportunity to lay a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknowns. Murphy, along with BVL Board Members LaSpina (BOD President), Libbi Fletcher, and Karl Kielich accompanied the wreath to the Tomb.

The day concluded with a reception at the Women In Military Service for America Memorial where BVL representatives met with VA Secretary McDonald. There, the Secretary was presented with a facsimile check of more than $925,000, representing the amount of money the sport of bowling raised during the 2015-16 season to support recreational and therapeutic programs and services designed to boost the spirits of hospitalized veterans and help speed their recuperation.

"The Secretary's interest in meeting with our BVL constituency clearly confirms his appreciation for our efforts. He never hesitates to illustrate his gratitude for our commitment to America's veterans," says LaSpina. "I explained to him that we are in this to win it; we have just begun to make our '16-'17 year the best yet."

VA Secretary Robert McDonald (fourth from right) accepts a $925,356.76 facsimile check from BVL representatives during Veterans Day ceremonies held in the District and at Arlington National Cemetery.
