Iowa bowler oldest to roll 800 series

ARLINGTON, Texas - Jim Novak of Cedar Rapids, Iowa recently made his way into the United States Bowling Congress record book as the oldest bowler to roll an 800 series. At 91 years, 2 months, and 21 days old, Novak on February 25 put together games of 279, 256, and 268 for an 803 series during the Young at Heart league. He topped the previous mark of 85 years and 9 days, set by William Lautenschlager of Stockton, California, in 2016.

Novak's score is pending formal approval from USBC and would be the 21st certified 800 of his 65-year bowling career. He last eclipsed the 800 mark in March 2010.

"Honestly, I'd given up on having another day like that because an 800 series really is hard to come by," said Novak, who also owns 35 USBC-certified perfect games.

Novak didn't start bowling until his late 20s, and his career as an auto mechanic who owned his own specialty shop limited the amount of time he spent on the lanes. After the business was established and doing well, there was more help and more time to bowl.

His first USBC-certified 300 game came in 1988 when he was 60 years old, and his first 800 came almost seven years later.

NCAUSBCA MAY 2019
FUND-RAISER:
93 WAYS TO CASH!

As many NCAUSBCA members now know, your local association provides nearly all bowler awards. To help defray the cost of local awards and other programs that can benefit all members, NCAUSBCA will offer each day in May 2019 an opportunity for individuals to cash through numbers selected in the daily Virginia Lottery "Pick 3" game (1:59 p.m. drawing). In fact, every $10 raffle ticket has three chances to win daily -- and a monthly total of 93 chances! -- with a minimum winning amount of $15. Payouts will be made no later than June 15, 2019. Tickets are available through your lane representative as well as the NCA-USBCA office in Largo, Md.

NOMINATIONS OPEN FOR IBMA CHUCK
PEZZANO MEDIA
SCHOLARSHIP

The International Bowling Media Association (IBMA) is now accepting applications for the IBMA 2019 Chuck Pezzano Scholarship. The $5,000 scholarship is awarded to either a senior in high school or collegiate student who shows a commitment to writing about the sport of bowling. The ideal applicant will be someone who plans to continue covering the sport in either a part-time or full-time capacity after graduation. The $5,000 scholarship, which is presented by the Billiard & Bowling Institute of America, was created more than a decade ago to help identify tomorrow's bowling writers among today's youth. "In addition to providing a worthy student the scholarship," said Keith Hamilton, president of IBMA, "the message that a career in bowling journalism is available is critical to ensure the continuation of dedicated journalists writing about the sport." The deadline to apply is April 30, and interested applicants can go to www.bowlingmedia.org/scholarships for more information and to submit an application.

TO RICHMOND

Richmond Raceway will be the site of the season-ending Professional Women's Bowling Association (PWBA) Tour Championship for the third consecutive year, and national sponsor QubicaAMF once again will be actively involved in the closing events of the PWBA Tour season. The 2019 PWBA Tour Championship is set for Sept. 15-18 at the Historic Old Dominion Building at the Richmond Raceway Complex as part of Richmond Raceway's NASCAR Playoff Race Week. QubicaAMF will build four state-of-the-art lanes for the event, and CBS Sports Network will have live coverage of the PWBA Tour Championship's final rounds on Sept. 18.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE • MICHAEL TINSLEY

Is your league ready for season's end?

We approach the end of another bowling season, and I hope all of you have enjoyed it.

Your league audits should have been performed to ensure the accuracy of all bank deposits to date. Presidents should have onship Tournaments. The Women's event is underway through March 24 at AMF Capital Plaza in Hyattsville, Md. Meanwhile, the Open Tournament is scheduled for April 6-7, 13-14, and 27-28 at Bowl America Bull Run Presidents should have received their league's bank statements, read them over, and initialized and returned them to the league treasurer.

received their league's bank statements, read them over, and initialized and returned them to the league treasurer.

If your league is experiencing a shortage of funds, it should be reported to the local association office, which will work with the league to remedy the issue.

This also the time of the season when the association sponsors its Women's and Open Champiin Manassas, Va. (Teams), while the Singles & Doubles competitions will take place at nearby Bowl America Manassas. The Open's entry deadline is April 1.

Hope to see you at one of these tournaments.

Michael Tinsley can be reached via eMail at president@ncausbca.org.

MANAGER'S MEMO • RONALD MCGREGOR

Does your league have any prize fund issues?

Another winter season is almost at an end for most bowlers, and we have again been spared by Mother Nature the wrath of winter snow, at least in our area anyway. Not so good if you live in Chicago as I once did ... brrr!

A frequently asked question: Is a bowler who quit the league entitled to a prize share? Answer: It depends. If the bowler left the league in good standing, then he/she is entitled to a share of the prize.

Leagues should always have an audit done within the last month of the season to avoid nasty surprises come payoff time.

Another question: The prize fund is short due to bowler arrears, so how do we calculate the team prize payout? The payout will most likely have to be done on a percentage basis if it is too late to get the bowler(s) to make the required payments.

An audit would have discovered the shortage. Leagues should always have an audit done within the last month of the season to avoid nasty surprises come payoff time. You can check the "Secretary's Corner" section on our site for sample forms and procedures for audits and financial statements.

Please remember to certify your mid-season leagues and send in the membership cards so that everyone can be counted. Basic membership is still $11.00, and bowlers are required to pay a Basic membership fee for every Basic league. The best value is to pay $24 and have the ability to bowl in multiple leagues at no extra cost, and this includes the summer as well.

Final averages are the league secretary's responsibility—not the bowling center's. Fillable final average forms are available on request, just eMail bowlmag@hotmail.com to request a form.

We recently had our Annual Membership Meeting where the USBC-proposed amendments to the rules, bylaws, and tournaments were discussed. A list of the amendments and the decisions made by those who attended appears on page 10.

Want a really good value? Bowl in our upcoming NCAUSBCA 74th Annual Open Championship Tournament. A new offering this season is the Crossover Doubles, where you can bowl with as many partners as you wish and increase your chances of getting a check. Participants must bowl on the same doubles squad to participate.

No hotel stay is required, and the prize payout ratio is better than most.

Both were elected by acclamation. In a contest for fifth vice president between two directors, James Butler, Mitchellville, Md., defeated Jane Andrews of the District.

On a separate ballot, the members elected four youth directors to two-year terms: Ja'Sean Billings, Suitland, Md.; David DeBat, Warrenton, Va.; Lorenzo "Zone" Holland, Chesapeake Beach, Md.; and Robin Hollyfield, Manassas, Va.

Terms for those elected begin August 1.

Director Adam Mitchell led a discussion of the proposed amendments that will be voted on at the USBC Annual Meeting this April in Las Vegas, Nev. (The amendment summaries as well as the desires expressed by the USBC board and NCAUSBCA members on the legislation appear on page 10.)

Immediately prior to the meeting's adjournment, Sharon Brown made a motion that the association pay all bills. It was seconded by Lorenzo "Zone" Holland and passed by the members.

Once again, there were several fund-raising contests. Nannette White and James Butler won 50/50 drawings. A total of $88 was collected for Ways and Means, while $56 was received for BVL.

Meanwhile, $130 was collected in ticket sales for the May 2019 Virginia Lottery "Pick 3" game.

Ja'Sean Billings (left), seeking his first two-year term as a director, spoke briefly on his own behalf during the election process.

Adam Mitchell conducted the review of the USBC proposed amendments.

Jim Lewis informed the attendees about upcoming USBC legislation regarding bowling balls.

Nannette White announced the winner of the NCAUSBCA 2017-2018 Secretary of the Year Award (see page 11).

Jim Lewis wins Youth Invitational Fund-raiser

NCAUSBCA Hall of Famer Jim Lewis (left) won the Youth Invitational Fund-raiser Tournament that took place at Bowl America Woodbridge and AMF Capital Plaza. He won $100 plus $60 in high game payouts while averaging 201.67 for 12 games. Leading qualifier Shawn Bevenour fell one pin short and took home $60 plus $20. Darryl Carreon ($40/$10) placed third, and the next three finishers each pocketed high game winnings: 4, Chris Holmes ($40); 5, D J Edwards ($20); and 6, Dustin Mahmot ($10).

Garrett Meadows selected 25th recipient of Ted Gruszkowski Jr. Youth Star Award

Garrett Meadows is the 2019 recipient of the prestigious NCAUSBCA Ted Gruszkowski Jr. Youth Star Award, which is named in honor of the late association Hall of Fame member who was a strong supporter of area youth bowling. The announcement of this year's winner took place January 20 at Bowl America Falls Church during the NCAUSBCA Youth 50th Annual Invitational Scratch Singles Tournament.

The award winner, honored for bowling achievement and/or service to youth bowling, was presented with a plaque and $200 in scholarship funds, which will be administered through the USBC SMART program. In addition, his name is the first that appears on a second plaque of honorees, the completed first of which contains the names of the 24 previous award recipients.

Garrett, 17, currently is a junior at Annandale High School. Through balancing bowling, choir, football, and community services, he has maintained an impressive 3.65 GPA. Garrett excels in math and sciences, and for the past two years, he has achieved perfect scores on his SOLs (Standards of Learning) for math, while scoring a near-perfect score in science this past year. Through all these achievements, he was nominated to join the National Society of High School Scholars.

Garrett shows heavy interest in giving back to his community by volunteering at a local soup kitchen for the homeless whenever he is able. He helps there not because he has to but because he likes seeing the joy in people's eyes as he watches them receive the service.

Garrett also is a member of the NCAUSBCA Youth Committee. Being a part of this committee, he gets a say in meetings and all discussions that have to do with the youth, as he is a youth representative. He also takes part in helping run local tournaments when he is available and not bowling.

Garrett started to bowl at the age of 2½. He has had a strong love for the sport ever since he picked

Let's keep things fair and honest

Many of us enjoy entering our league's jackpot games, and we always expect those games to be run fairly and honestly. Unfortunately, sometimes the people who run the games may need to be reminded that these events are for the bowlers and not the personal enrichment of the person running the games.

What am I talking about?

Well, I have noticed that in a few in-league jackpot games, the person who was declared the winner of the game had the highest game score but had never actually entered the jackpot. However, the crooked person who collected declared this "non-entrant" the jackpot winner and then paid a little something to that "declared winner" while pocketing the rest of the winnings.

Meanwhile, the poor person who had actually paid to enter the jackpot and had bowled the highest score among the true entrants got nothing—zippo, nada, zilch!

Now how is that fair?

The answer is: It is not fair.

On a different but similar note, I asked some good bowlers why they hadn't entered a local tournament. They said because other bowlers were allowed to enter the tournament without having to pay the entry fee.

What!?

The tournament director allowed certain bowlers to enter as many times as they wish for free. They then have some sort of payout later.

Now how is that fair to those who enter and pay every time?

The answer is: It is not fair.

Personally, I happen to be a big fan of in-league jackpots, and I love local tournaments, but I also think that sometimes the people running the events need to be gently reminded to stay honest and to run things fairly.

up his first bowling ball. He has a 223 book average and a 225 in his Saturday morning youth league. Garrett bowled league at Bowl America Shirley for a number of years before traveling over to Bowl America Woodbridge's youth league in 2016. He also has bowled in the youth travel league for the past four years, each year showing respect and kindness to his fellow teammates.

Garrett has had many achievements at numerous tournaments, including a second-place finish in the 2017 600 Club Tournament of Champions, where he bowled his first certified 300 game during the stepladder finals. He placed third at the 2018 Youth Invitational Scratch Singles Tournament, throwing a high game of 279 to advance in the standings and ultimately place third in the A Division.

Garrett has bowled two honor scores of 800. His high set of 837 consisted of the games 269-269-299, which also was the youth house record at Bowl America Woodbridge for a period of time.

He has qualified for the Junior Gold Championships for the past three years. Each year, he has bowled the Junior Gold Survivor tournament and qualified for the next year's Junior Gold by placing 10th out of 180 boys to grab his spot.

He has bowled the Danny Wiseman Tournament for the past three years, each year making the cut to the second day. This past year, he had an amazing run and reached the fourth round of match play.

Garrett plans to obtain a computer engineering degree and would like to continue to bowl in college, possibly with the help of a scholarship award.

While he loves to bowl, he also loves to assist anyone who needs help.

Garrett Meadows is a worthy recipient of the NCAUSBCA Ted Gruszkowski Jr. Youth Star Award, not only for his accomplishments on the lanes and in the community but also because he is a kind, loving, and well-rounded individual with a great passion for the sport of bowling.

USBC Open Championships to adjust squad schedules starting in 2020

ARLINGTON, Texas – Starting with the 2020 event, the United States Bowling Congress will adjust the number of squads for the Open Championships to provide competitors with additional options for Doubles/Singles competition.

At the 2020 Open Championships, only four bowlers will compete on each pair during Doubles/Singles (D/S) squads. The change will reduce the time needed to complete a squad, allowing the Open Championships to have four D/S squads, instead of the current three.

In addition to starting (7 a.m.) and ending the day (11:45 p.m.), D/S squads also will take place at 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. under the new schedule. Team squads will be at 1 p.m. and 8 p.m., starting with the 2020 event.

The change is in response to the results of an Open Championships survey, in which more than 53 percent of the bowlers said having to bowl an early or late D/S squad was a significant problem for their team. The current schedule has just one D/S squad (2:30 p.m.) that is deemed a desirable timeslot, and it quickly fills up.

“Moving to four D/S squads, with four bowlers on each pair, will allow more competitors to bowl a D/S squad at a more desirable time,” Open Championships Tournament Director Duane Hagen said. “This will help for better scheduling, as teams can match their early or late team competition date with an early or late D/S date, and should help in the management of the tournament overall.”

With the change, USBC will be able to offer more than half of the competitors a midday D/S timeslot. Currently, only about one-third of the bowlers are able to compete midday. Despite the last D/S squad of the day having a later start in 2020, the squad is expected to finish at an earlier time since there are fewer bowlers on each pair.

The new schedule also should assist in keeping squads on time, as there will be additional time between squads for lane conditioning, squad announcements, and the march out.

Registration for the 2020 Open Championships at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno, Nevada has begun. Visit BOWL.com/OpenChamp for more information about the Open Championships.
