After 12 games of qualifying on both a short and long Sport Bowling oil pattern over two days, the qualifying leaders thus far in the Teen Masters National Finals are Jake Peters, Decatur,

Jake Peters

Illinois and Ashly Galante, Palm Harbor, Florida. Both are 17-year-old high school juniors. Peters attends Hillside Bethel Christian School in Decatur and Galante attends Tarpon Springs High School.

The girls best player thus far is Ashly Galante, Palm Harbor, Florida. Ashley outdistanced the field and became the only girl to average over 200 for the first two qualifying rounds with a very nice 1298 Thursday to go with her Wednesday score of 1177. Her Thursday games were 249, 200, 195, 218, 235, and 201.

"I just came out today to have fun, bowl well and stay focused," said Galante. "Yesterday, I was plus going into the last game and had a bad finish. Today was much better. Tomorrow, I'm going to stay optimistic, try to keep having fun."

Peters posted his score in 'B' squad Thursday, and Galante bowled in 'A' squad. The other leaders joining them as squad leaders were Josie Earnest and Craig Hanson. Hanson, Orlando, Florida led the 'A' squad boys on Thursday with a nice 2525, and Earnest, Vadaia, Illinois shot 2323 to lead the girls 'B' squad.

After six more games of qualifying this morning, the field, which started with 309 bowlers, will be down to the top 32 boys and top 16 girls. The boys will then bowl another round, and
