

Joines Wins Third Virginia Queens

by Julie Phillips

Congratulations to Cathy Joines of Landover, Md. for winning her third Virginia Queens tournament. In the Oct. 24-25 event at Major League Lanes in Richmond, Cathy totaled 3037 pins over 16 games, edging out her closest competitor by 11 pins.

Cathy was the area's top-ranked woman bowler in 1977-78 and has appeared in the top 10 since then, most recently as #8 in 1980-81 with a 179.9 composite average.

Membership in the VBQ is open to all members who have averaged 165 or more for at least 36 games. Members of any professional women's bowling association are NOT eligible for membership.

Tournament format includes two four-game blocks on Saturday and two blocks on Sunday. Winner is determined by total scratch pinfall for all 16 games. There are also special "out-of-the-money" awards. Entry fee is $30.00

This year's next tournament will be held Mar. 27-28 at the Village Lanes, Leesburg, Va. If you are interested in knowing more about the organization, please contact Ginny Thoms, Tournament Director, 18 Willow Branch Dr., Fredericksburg, Va. 22401.
