

FLEMING AND FREENY WIN MWBPA HOLIDAY MIXED DOUBLES

Robin Fleming and John Freeny walked away with $715.00 and the special Championship trophies as winners of the 10th annual Metropolitan Washington Bowling Proprietors Holiday Mixed Doubles Tournament eliminations concluded at Rinaldi's Shirley Park Bowl.

Fleming bowled a 3352 actual score for the 19 game event. Freeny added 3634 and with 325 bonus pins for winning games in match play, they posted 7311 to beat their nearest rivals by 176 pins.

James Taylor, of Glassmanor made the most exciting performance of the event in the 3rd stop at Fair Lanes Springfield. Bowling like a professional, this 179 average avid bowler put games of 256-241-216-713 together for his first "700" series.

Warren Hughes was tops among the 28 men who bowled games in the 600 bracket. The first stop at Bowl America Duke saw this talented bowler change his line after his first game of 182 and then come back with games of 234 and 240 for a 656 series.

Gold Pin award games were rolled by Chuck Miller 268 and James Snow 266.

The ladies also had their day when Glo Cunningham, a 156 average bowler opened the event with a 228 game. Then, in the third stop at Fair Lanes Springfield, she blasted the pins for 220-204-216 for the high 640 series.

Other sets by the ladies over 600 were: Quentenna Boone 618, Viola Duckett 613, Jane Crenshaw 612, Margaret Black 603.

Everyone wanted to know, "When is the next scratch tournament?" The Bowling Proprietors will have another Holiday

Doubles next year, but the next scratch event is the Annual Invitational tournament that is scheduled for June 27th. This is another elimination tournament with separate men's and women's divisions. Look for your invitation.
