Haynes Hits 269 to Win $10,000 Kegel Sweeper Grand Finale

Bo Goergen Wins Car, But Opts For $10,000 Cash In Raffle Drawing

David Haynes, Las Vegas, was near perfect in the championship game of the $58,000 Mini Eliminator Kegel Sweeper Grand Finale. Haynes, winner of the $5000 Saturday night sweeper, left a 10-pin in his first frame and a 4 pin in the ninth - everything else was a solid strike from a far outside line on lanes 25 and 26 at the Orleans Bowling Center. He earned $10,000 for his fantastic 269 game.

Brad Kiszewski, W. Seneca, NY put a little pressure on Haynes when he strung a six-bagger in frames 5-10, but Haynes responded by striking in the tenth to secure victory. Kiszewski earned $5000 for his fine showing. He finished with a 245.

Senior bowler Ed Roberts, Braintree, MA took third place with a nice 225. Brian Brazeau, Ocala, FL won $2000 for fourth, and fifth place went to Kennie Lane for $1500. Brazeau shot 202, and Lane, who also finished fifth in Monday's sweeper, rolled a 168.

Before the big game began, the Kegel Sweeper Grand Sweepstakes Prize Ticket was drawn. The winner had a choice between a 2004 Toyota Corolla or $10,000 in cash. Lori Tessmar, President of Turbo 2-N-1 Sales & Marketing drew the winning ticket that belonged to long-time Mini supporter and great bowler Bo Goergen, Sanford, MI.

Goergen was not in the bowling center when his name was called, but several cell phone calls had him here quickly. When he arrived, he opted for the $10,000 cash prize.

The all new Mini Kegel Sweepers were very successful, drawing 1374 total entries and paying out $198,725 in cash prizes.
