Turbo 2-N-1 Remains A Great Mini Eliminator Sponsor

Many changes have taken place in the past decade for the Mini Eliminator Tournaments, but one thing has remained the same - the sponsorship of Turbo 2-N-1 Grips. Turbo, the worlds leading grip company has sponsored many events and programs in the bowling industry, and Pinnacle Events is proud to have them as a Mini Eliminator sponsor.

President of Sales and Marketing, Lori Tessmar, leads the Turbo Team, and manning the booth at this special event is National Sales Manager Crissy Wissinger, Dave Bernhardt Jr., Chris Sands and Jennifer Locke.

Mini Eliminator bowlers over the years have come to rely on Turbo for the best grip products and fine quality bowling apparel. At the 10th Anniversary Mini, Turbo has teamed up with a new line of bowling apparel, b.line shirts. Those worn by the Mini Eliminator staff can be found in the Turbo merchandise booth.

Turbo is also a big part of the Brunswick Practice Range. PBA touring pro Chris Sands is available to help Mini Eliminator bowlers select the best grips for their new Brunswick balls, and fine quality bowling apparel, such as the b.line shirts featured at the Mini, and their new line of Power Supplies bowling tape.

Some of the point of sale material being shared at the Mini is a set of colorful postcards featuring Turbo's great line of products. In addition to making the best grips in the industry, Turbo is also a supplier of Another new Turbo product is being introduced at the Mini Eliminator for the first time. It's the Handmaster plus hand, wrist & forearm exerciser, a great tool for bowlers to warm-up their bowling arm, hand and fingers before competition.
