Harrington, Bixler Earn $1000 Sweeper Cash Monday Night; 32 Bowlers Advance to $55,000 Sweeper Finals

The first half of the Super Bowl Mini Eliminator Sweeper was completed Monday night, with 32 players advancing to Wednesday night's top 64 Matchplay Finals, where last cash is guaranteed $500 and first place will pay a minimum of $5000.

Winning the high qualifier money of $1000 each Monday night were Craig Harrington, Riverton, Utah in the 10 p.m. squad, and Mike Bixler, Sinking Spring, Pennsylvania. Harrington rolled a 525, and Bixler tossed a 500 in the 8 p.m. squad.

David Watson also rolled a 525, but he was not in the $20 optional pot that paid

$1000 to the winner. In addition to the 32 bowlers who made the finals, 12 other players cashed in Monday's sweeper squads. The second half of the sweeper will roll tonight, with 32 more players advancing to the finals.
