

Patty Costello Signs As AMF Staff Pro

Patty Costello, the current professional woman Bowler of the Year from New Carrollton, has signed with the AMF Staff of Champions.

In making the announcement of Patty's signing, R. R. Woodruff, vice-president for Marketing Operations of AMF said, "We are most pleased and proud to add so distinguished a talent to our bowling family."

AMF's staff also includes Paula Sperber, Cheryl Kominsky, and Hall of Famers Bev Ortner and Helen Duval.

AMF can now claim back to back Bowlers of the Year. Patty succeeded Paula Sperber.

On the male side of the staff are Bowlers of the Year Dick Weber, Wayne Zahn, and Billy Harwick.

Patty became the winningest bowler in PWBA history last year with five wins on one season.

STAFF PRO. Patty Costello of New Carrollton signs her AMF staff pro contract as R. R. Woodruff, Vice-President of Marketing Operations, expresses his delight.
