Top seed Samuel Anderson defeated third seed Garrett Meadows 239-173 to win the 180 and Above average division in the NCAUSBCA Youth 600 Club Tournament of Champions held March 18 at Bowl America Falls Church. Anderson averaged 231.5 for 11 games.

Meanwhile, Billings, also a top seed, struck out in the 10th frame to defeat fourth seed Tamera Stanton 215-209 to win the Under 180 average division. Billings averaged 205.6 for 11 games.

In the 180 and Over division, third seed Meadows rolled a perfect game in the first step-ladder contest, defeating fourth seed Ethan Cottle, who scored 210. Meadows then defeated second seed Denard Bankston II 229-203 in the semifinal match.

In the Under 180 division, Stanton defeated third seed Justus Lewis 209-185 and second seed Richard Peterson 189-181 to reach the championship match.

Tamera Stanton's outstanding championship match performance was topped by Ja'Sean Billings' clutch performance in the final frame.
